KNOXVILLE HISTORY PROJECT

DOWNTOWN ART WRAPS

Inspiring appreciation of Knoxville's rich artistic heritage on the city's streets

AVAILABLE ARTWORKS

Street in Knoxville*, 1947
By Charles Griffin Farr

Knoxville Museum of Art

“Man and River,” by Robert Birdwell. (KMA/Private Collection.)

“Boats and Water,” by Carl Sublett
Knoxville Museum of Art

“Cliffscape,” by Carl Sublett
Knoxville Museum of Art

“Sea Edge VIII,” by Walter Stevens
Knoxville Museum of Art

“Palimpsest,” by Richard Clarke
Knoxville Museum of Art

“Three Chieftains,” by Ted Burnett
Knoxville Museum of Art

“Untitled,” by Adelia Armstrong Lutz

There may be others that Knox Heritage can suggest by Lutz.

Historic Westwood/Knox Heritage

Knoxville Blockhouse in 1793

By Lloyd Branson, painted in 1910.

Knoxville History Project

Woodland Scene by Catherine Wiley

McClung Historical Collection